CERTIFIED DESTINATION

Saarland

The sustainability process of the tourist destination leads

Tourismus Zentrale Saarland GmbH (TZS)

Within this framework, sustainability factors were analysed and rated destination wide. As part of the certification, the coordinating organization has established a partner system consisting of tourist businesses who act as pioneers of sustainability at the tourist destination. The organization has named a sustainability officer and created a destination wide strategy committee. Together, measures for improvement were identified, a sustainability report produced, and sustainability included in the tourism strategy. An independent expert has reviewed the compliance of TourCert's certification requirements.
